Guide to the Use of the Index

This is a subject index to articles appearing in POLITY, the Journal of the Northeastern Political Science Association, Volumes X, XI, and XII. Use of the index will be facilitated by noting the following points:

1. Relationship between subjects is indicated through subdivisions of the main entry and through see also references. (See also directs the user to additional entries: see to a different entry.)

2. Specific concepts within Political Theory are not entered separately but under the general headings: POLITICAL THEORY (CONTEMPORARY CONCEPTS), POLITICAL THEORY (HISTORICAL CONCEPTS). Concepts of historical importance subject to contemporary re-examination will be found under both headings. Theorists of historical importance are entered under the general heading POLITICAL THEORY (HISTORICAL PHILOSOPHERS). Ideologies and "isms" are included under THEORY or under POLITICAL SCIENCE (THE DISCIPLINE).

3. Titles and authors are not in the Index proper. However, preceding the Index are (a) a list of TITLES OF ARTICLES INDEXED, arranged chronologically according to appearance in POLITY; and (b) a list of AUTHORS OF ARTICLES INDEXED, arranged alphabetically and with reference to volume, number, and page.

4. Review-Articles are not indexed in depth. However, each Review-Article is entered (via the notation RA with volume, number, and page) under two or three appropriate subject headings in the Index.

5. Review-Articles are of essay length, frequently citing several titles. Preceding the Index are: (a) a list of TITLES OF REVIEW-ARTICLES AND OF LITERATURE REVIEWED THEREIN, arranged chronologically according to appearance in POLITY; (b) a list of AUTHORS OF REVIEW-ARTICLES, arranged alphabetically and with reference to volume, number, and page; and (c) a list of AUTHORS OF LITERATURE REVIEWED, arranged alphabetically and with reference to volume, number, and page.

6. In the Index, location references are to volume, number, and first page of the article in which the subject is to be found.

7. Research Notes are indexed with the articles.
